hello little sister. you're that & so much more. what does a person say when the end of a long & memorable 2 years comes to a ~~miserable~~ oops close. i only wish that you were my little sister right from the beginning. Lots of times, big-sister, little-sister relationships only go as far hello-goodbye. You know as well as & do that we meant much more. You are probably the only person who knows all those things we talked about. (and & hope the only person that will). We've been thru so much these past 2 years and & can't believe its over. The soph-senior pepper was the icing on the cake. i'll never forget the shirt you put on for me. i really made my day. If & had seen you in the audience on class day, we would have floated out from the tears. It's gonna be so lonely out in Calif. without you. i'm gonna miss you so much. maybe too much. don't forget to write me jake. i'll be looking forward to your letters. good bye jake, take care & i love you –

(your big sister)

love always,
debbie

ALMA MATER

Resurrection, Alma Mater,
"Victory" is our cry;
Green our hope and gold our triumph
Here within you lie!

Resurrection, Alma Mater,
We shall never stray
From the golden path you've shown us,
Modeled on God's Way!

Resurrection, Alma Mater,
'Neath your guiding hand,
Teaching truth, inspiring virtue;
We, your daughters stand!

Ever softly, ever sweetly,
Voices ringing true,
Rise in lilting verse together;
Sing your praises due!

It is to you, the underclassmen,
that we dedicate our book with the wish that you continue your metamorphosis~
To grow, to grow as a class, and as your final goal: to grow as a person.
To shed your cocoon and be an individual.
To these dreams, we give you our luck and love,
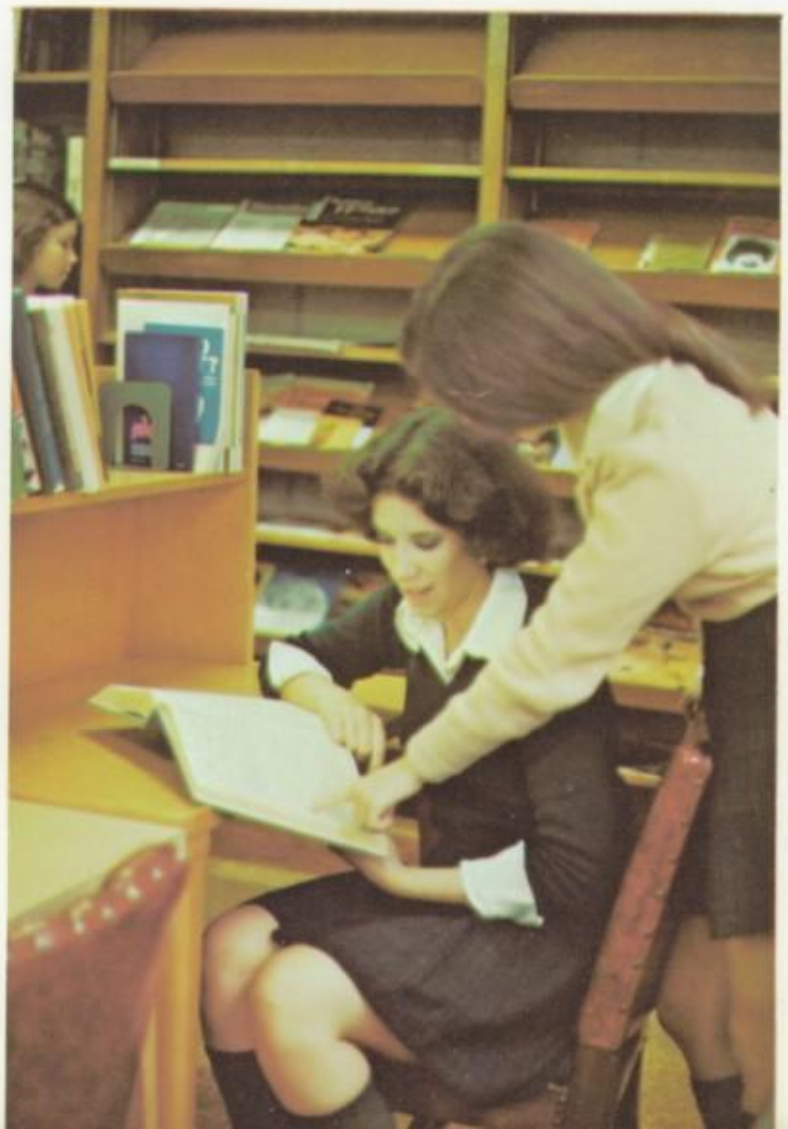
The Seniors

The miracle of change affected us in many different ways.
Our change has allowed us to be individuals,
And it is this metamorphosis
That we wish to share with you.
Our metamorphosis gave friends,
New experiences,
And a new form.

This new form allowed us
To spread our wings and horizons,
And to accept the changes
That we were faced with.

The freedom to change, to accept that change . . .



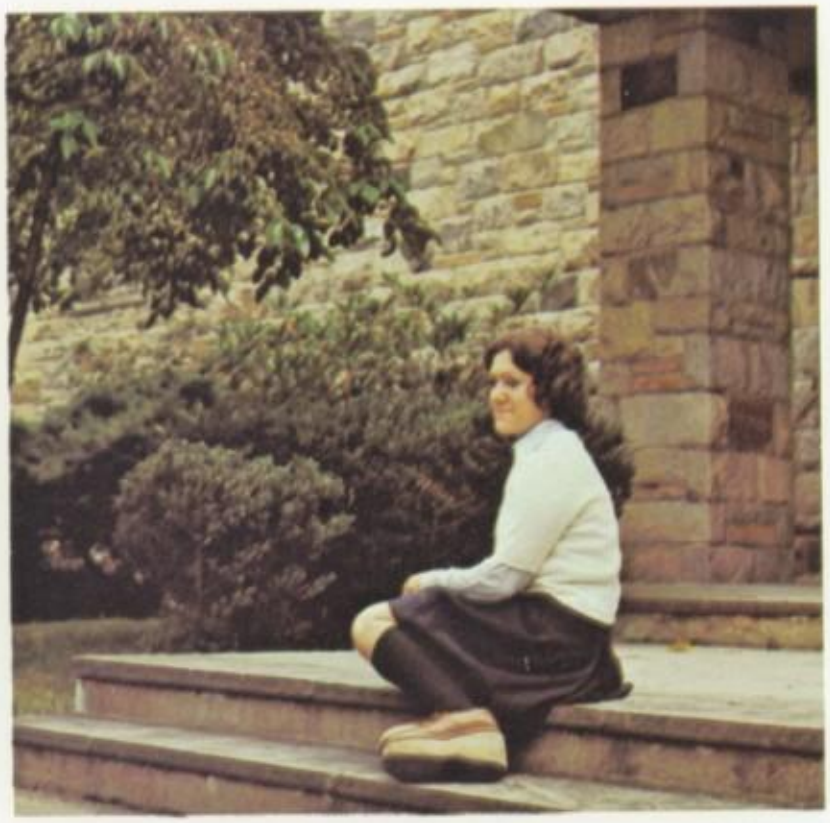
to share it with you.

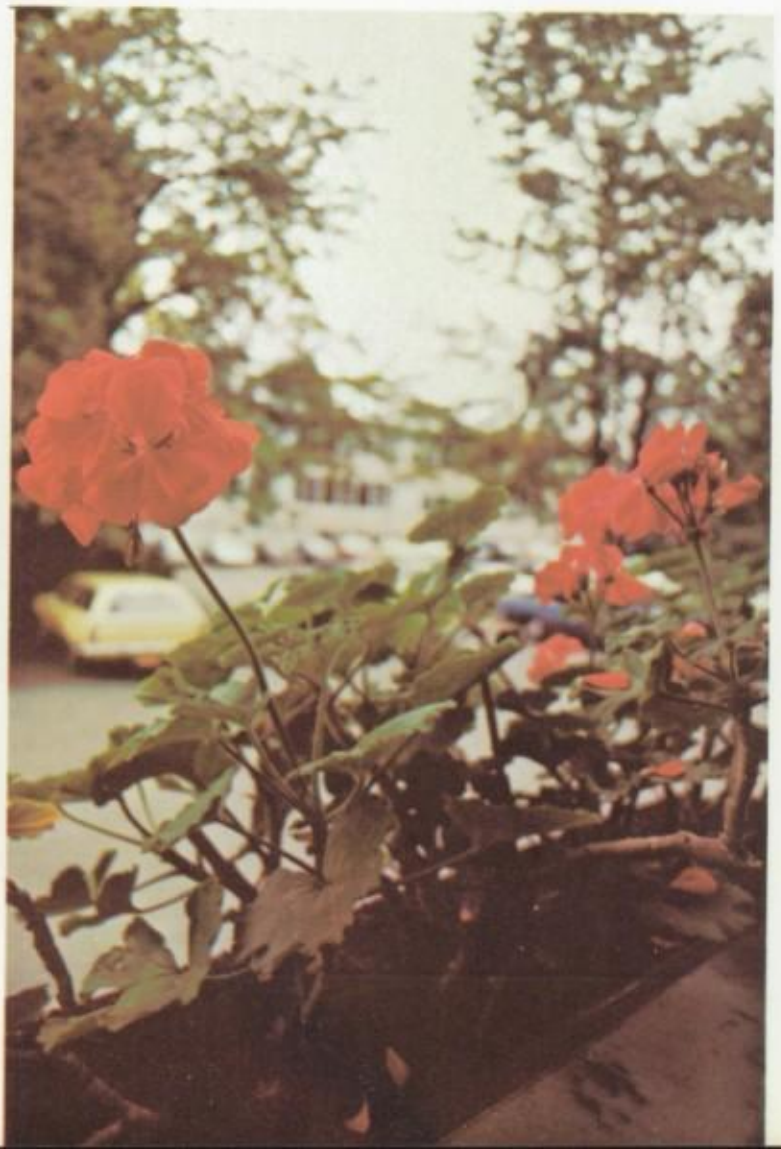
Dear Jake,
Well another year is gone and we only have two more years. I'm really glad I got to be better friends with you this year and I hope we can stay that way. I hope everything works out for you with Andrea & if it doesn't it's for the better. Have a great summer!

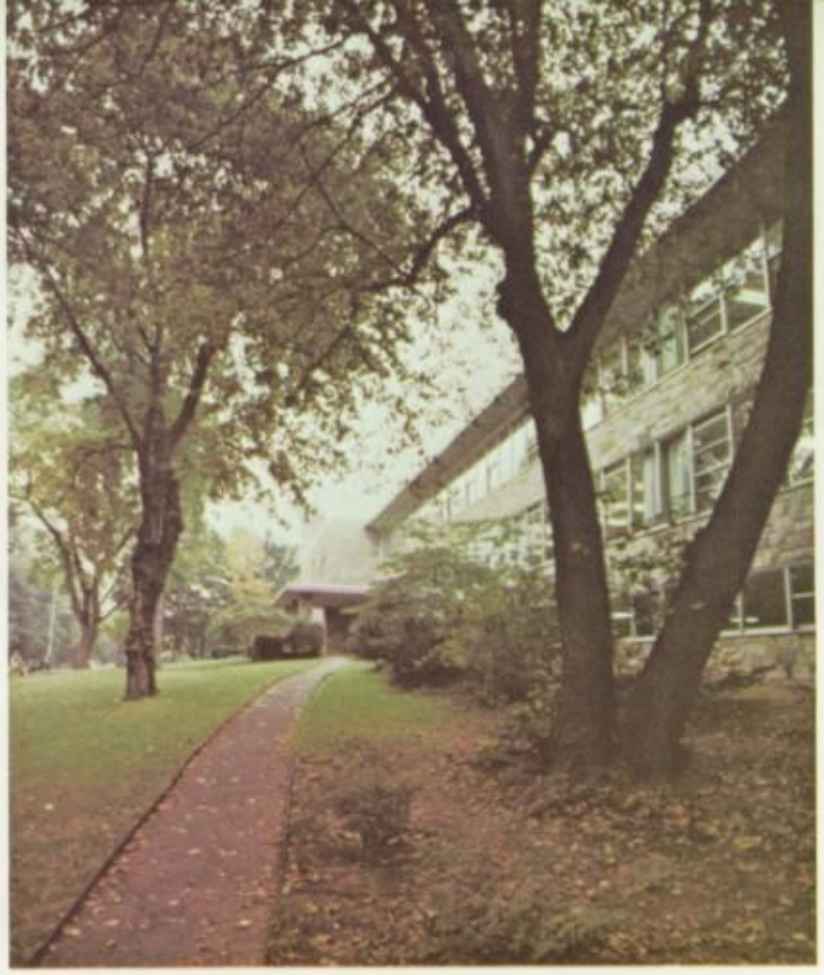
Take care,
Betty

The metamorphosis that took four years . . . will last many.

We have grown from an immature caterpillar . . .
to a graceful butterfly . . .







The beauty of it will never fade . . .

Is this the end?
Is life over for the caterpillar or has the change
made it harder to say Goodbye?
We grew,
not away from each other but rather as butterflies, ready to fly off alone.
To search,
To live,
To love . . .

IMMORTALITY

Two caterpillars crawling on a leaf
By some strange accident in contact came;
Their conversation, passing all belief,
Was that same argument the very same,
That has been "proed and conned" from man to man,
Yea, ever since this wonderous world began.
The first was optimistic, full of hope;
The second, quite dyseptic seemed to mope.
Said number one, "I'm sure of our salvation."
Said number two, "I'm sure of our damnation;
Our ugly forms alone would seal our fates
And bar our entrance through the golden gates.
I wonder what great crimes we have committed,
That leave us so forlorn and so unpitied.
Perhaps we've been ungrateful, unforgiving;
'Tis plain to me that life's not worth the living."
"Come, come, cheer up," the jovial worm replied.
"Let's take a look upon the other side;
Suppose we cannot fly like moths or millers,
Are we to blame for being caterpillars?"
They argued through the summer: autumn nigh,
The ugly things composed themselves to die;
Each wrapped him in his little winding sheet.
The tangled web encompassed them full soon,
Each for his coffin made him a cocoon,
Lo, spring comes forth with all her warmth and love;
She brings sweet justice from the realms above;
She breaks the chrysalis, she resurrects the dead;
Two butterflies ascend encircling her head.
And so this emblem shall forever be
A sign of immortality.

Clubs

Student Council

The Student Council under the able and impressive leadership of Patty Vaughan and Kim Schlotman plays a major role in the students' life at the Academy. Working under a Constitution, revised when necessary, its function is to offer a line of communication between the faculty and student body. Recently, it has played a great part in sponsoring social activities such as dances, film nights, theater parties, and pep rallies.

— Mrs. Sullivan

Moderator: Mrs. Sullivan

Committee Club

We have the members of the Committee Club to thank for the arrangement of dances, selecting bands, and choosing the films for movie night, they truly assist in all school events. We are thankful for their often unnoticed help.

Mrs. Sullivan

Publicity Club

The Publicity Club does just that: Publicize. They work on all school events by making posters and flyers. Not only do they work in our school but they are also a source of communication to other area schools.

Moderator: Mrs. Sullivan

Setonian

Our newspaper, the Setonian, offers every girl the opportunity to contribute to the school. The paper is usually issued twice each year with the Seniors having the major responsibility of assembling it. The issues, geared towards the interest of the girls, contain articles on the Student of the Month, achievements in Sports and reports on other Student activities. The Setonian prides itself on the involvement of the girls who work towards producing a good newspaper.

— Patty Vaughan

Moderator: Ms. Bavero

Sewing Club

Talent and ingenuity are two qualities that a girl must possess to be a member of the Sewing Club. The members meet and while working on their own creation, help a friend who is having trouble with hers. Whether the creation is a skirt, dress, pocketbook, or a sampler square, the enjoyment received from it is tremendous.

— Susan Green

Moderator: Miss Cavanagh

Mission Club

The Mission Club participates actively in the school. Each year there is a drive for the Missions in which the students sell candy. The proceeds are donated to the missions abroad. Other fund raising activities have included: paper drives, fifty-fifty, selling hammered jewelery, Chinese auctions, raffling off albums, and in past years, the buying of "slaves". The Mission Club has truly made a worthy contribution not only to our school but also to many needy people.

— Susan Green

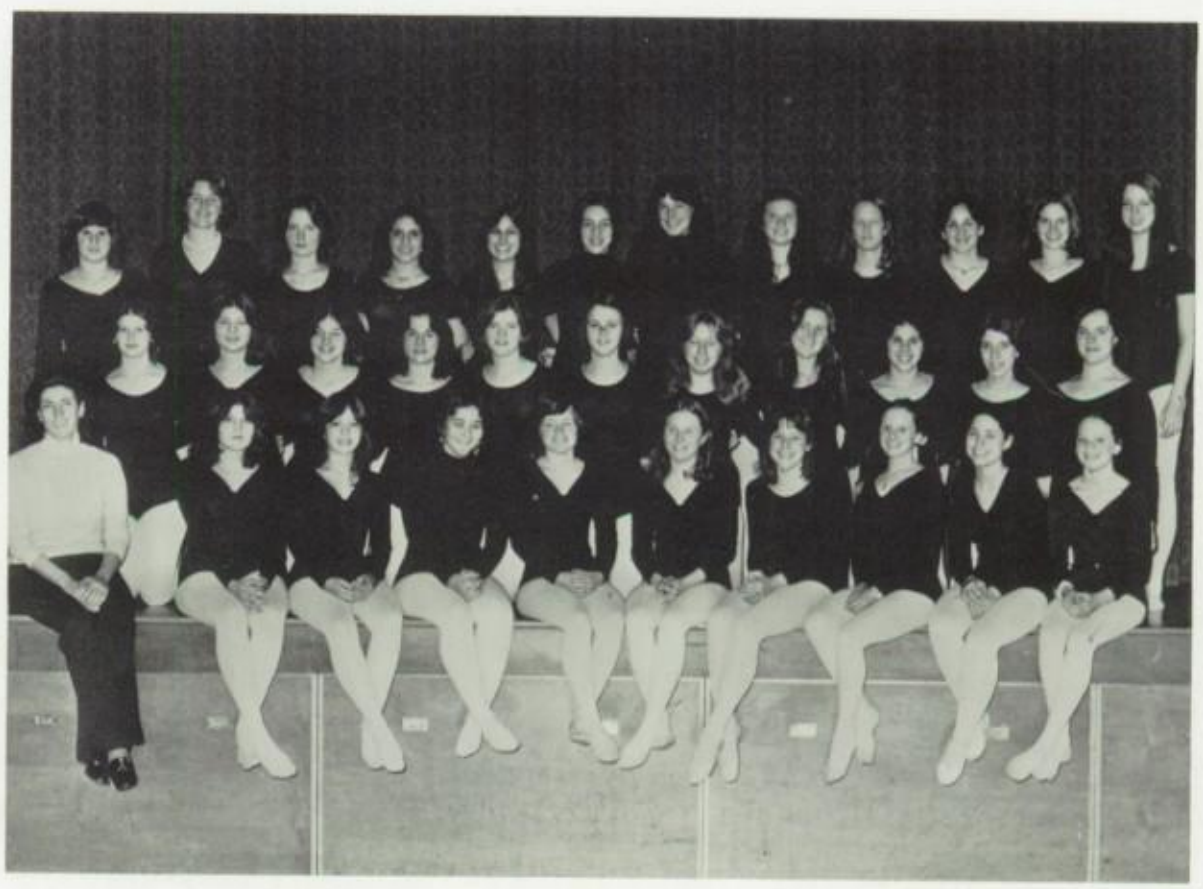
Moderator: Sr. Virginia

Dance Club

This year the Dance Club, incorporating the Ballet and Tap Clubs, put on a very impressive Christmas Show. Under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Norelli and Miss Kathy Thompson, a 1974 graduate of the Academy, The Nutcracker Suite was performed. It was by far, one of the most successful shows that the girls performed and proved the dedication and hard work of each one. As is customary, a Spring Show will also be staged and the girls are all looking forward to participating in it. Past shows have included: The Littlest Angel, The Wizard of Oz, and A Thoroughly Modern Alice in Wonderland.

— Susan Green

Moderators: Mrs. Norelli, Kathy Thompson



Stage Crew

Forensics

"Thank you and Good Afternoon . . .". Someone is writing a new speech, trying to perfect voice, memorizing a piece, or trying to prepare from a U. S. News and World Report. The week before a contest, someone, somewhere is practicing. This is the Forensics Team. The work is hard but the rewards are many (besides the obvious satisfaction of winning.)

Eileen Crumm

Moderator: Mrs. Norelli

Glee Club

The Glee Club is fun! In the past two years, it has doubled in size. Girls realize the spirit singing can spark. Each year, the Glee Club joins in the Christmas and Spring Shows to add their talents to the gala event.

— Maureen Lavelle

Moderator: Mr. Phillips

Arts and Crafts

The hammering of brass, the painting of glass, the designing of necklaces, and so many other creative activities are in full swing each Wednesday in the Arts and Crafts Club. The members are encouraged to share knowledge, skills, and technique with each other. In this way, everyone has an opportunity to teach, learn, and share. The club is limited only by the imagination of its members. A beautiful exhibition of work done by the members was given for the Bicentennial program, and many of the creations were also viewed with much enthusiam at the Open House Activity.

Moderators: Mrs. Russell, Sr. Vincent, Sr. Patrice

BETTER THAN THE GOLD OF KINGS

Service Club

The Service Club was organized by the Student Council in 1973. The objectives were to offer service to faculty and school in general. The areas of activity include: assistance to Mrs. Langer, supervision of the Learning Center, helping with the bookstore and Lost and Found, and maintaining a list of girls willing to "help out" in emergency situations. The activities certainly enrich the individual by giving a sense of responsibility and the reward of "service".

— Mrs. Sullivan

Moderator: Mrs. Sullivan

Library Club

The Library Club consists of about 20 students. The aim of the club is to encourage the girls to be of service to their school and their fellow students by helping in the Library. They perform such tasks as charging out books, slipping books, overdue notice procedures, shelf reading, filing, and typing. In this process of service to others, the girls are also enriching themselves by becoming more knowledgeable of books and reference sources helpful in their academic studies.

— Mrs. Brooks

Moderator: Mrs. Brooks

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society has been established at the Academy to bring recognition to outstanding students. Membership is based on the criteria of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.
— Sr. Virginia

Moderator: Sr. Virginia

Spanish Honor Society

The Spanish Honor Society is a National Honor Group sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portugese. To be a member of the Society a student must maintain an average of 90 in Spanish for two years. The initiation dinner at Pancho Villa's Mexican Restaurant is always anticipated with much enthusiasm.
— Mrs. Gurtler

Moderator: Mrs. Gurtler

Golf Team

The newly formed Golf Team has introduced its members to the challenge of hitting the ball so that it goes where it should. Whether to use the 7-iron or the 9-iron is still a mystery, but practice makes perfect.

Basketball Team

This year, in addition to the Varsity Basketball Team, there is now a J. V. Team. The Varsity Team is part of a Ten Team Catholic School League with their season games tallying Fourteen. Led by Senior Captains, Grace Christie and Debbie Sorbella, the team will participate not only in the regular season but also in two outside tournaments. This year, the J. V. Team has a six game season, but we hope to increase that number in the future.

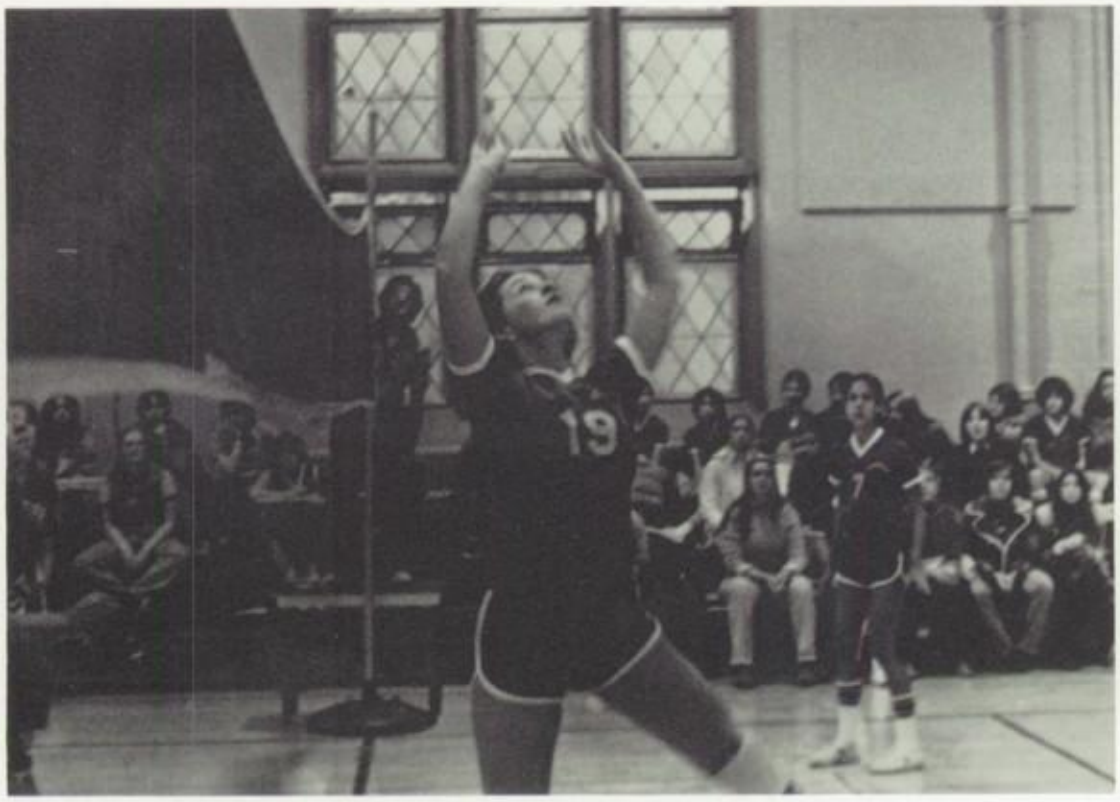
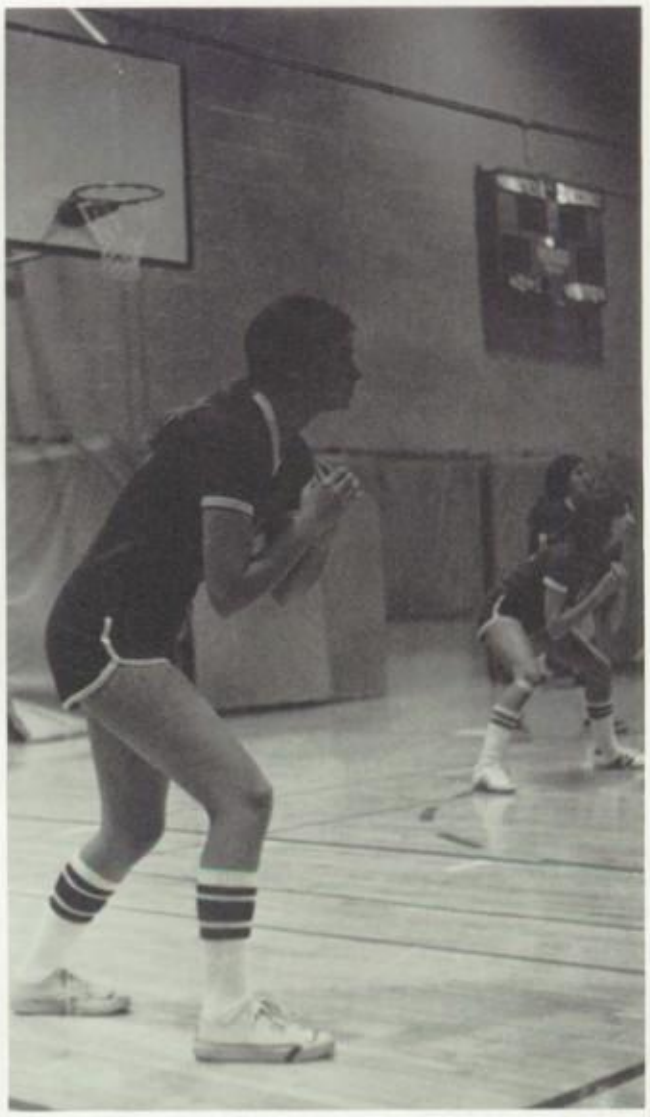
Volleyball Team

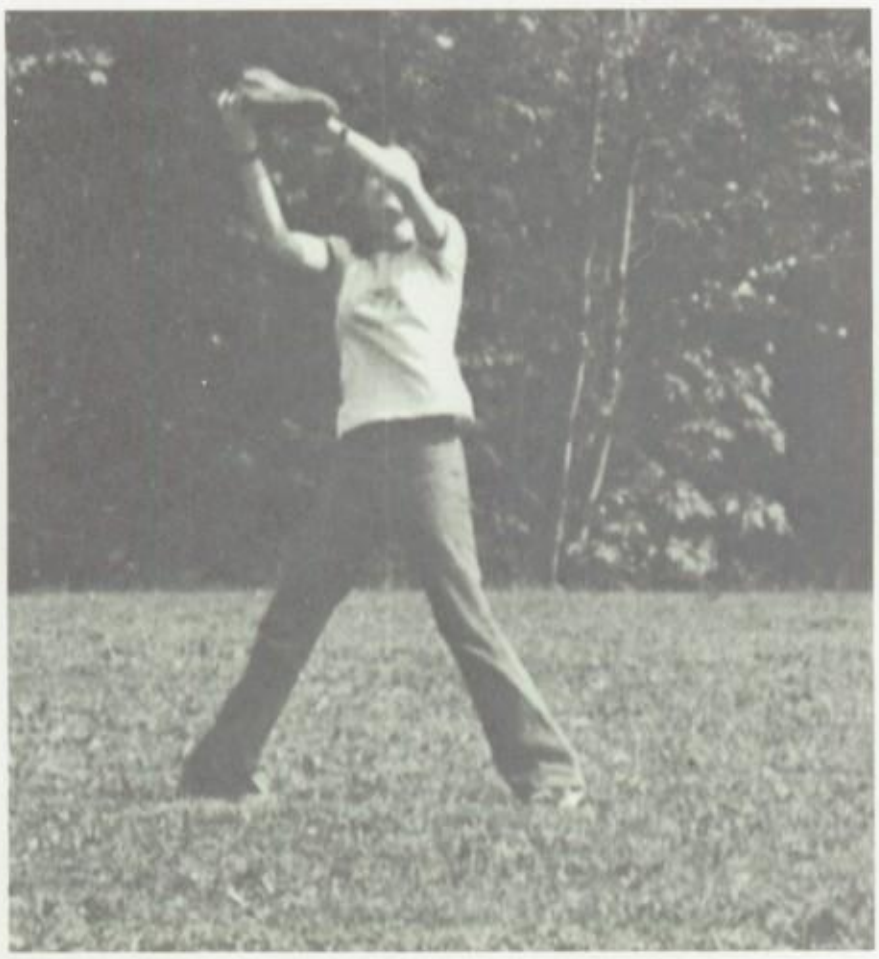




The Volleyball team, led by their Captains, Grace Christie and Debbie Sorbella, proved too great a match for their many rivals throughout the season. Their 9–1 record led them to the County Championship, where the girls placed first not only in their league but also in the County Tournament. Sportsmanship and teamwork helped bring home these two trophies, but the dedication of the team and the effort that they put into the game is the real reason why they did so well. We hope that next year's team will be able to achieve the same success.

— Fran Paolercio

Softball Team



Last year's Softball team (75–76 season) led by graduate Captains Monie Savage and Gail Carchietta had a good season which left them with a 5–2 record. This allowed them to be in the playoffs but they lost to Ursuline in the first round with a score of 10–9. The over all season proved to be very exciting and the girls are looking forward to this season for an even better year.

— Fran Paolercio

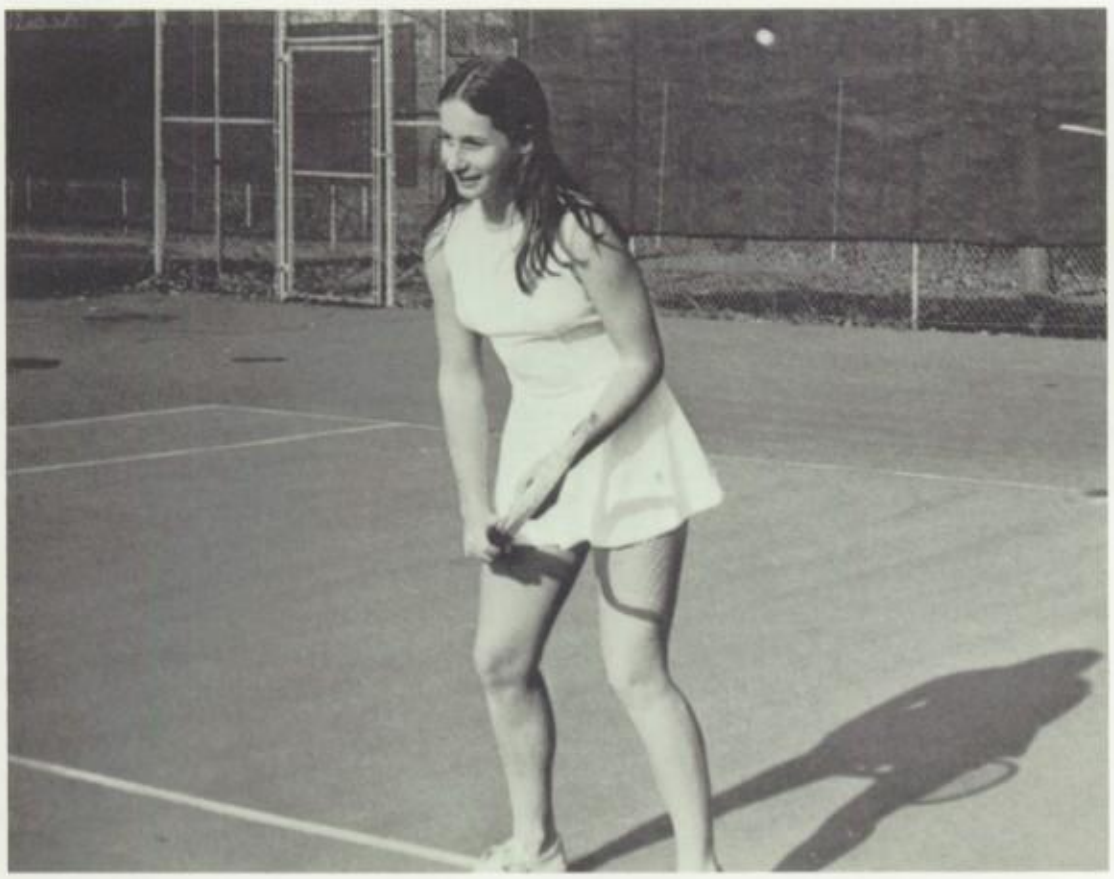
Moderator: Miss Bogacki

Track Team

The Track Team will be beginning their third season this year. The team placed third and fourth in the county meet in the two preceding years. This year, there are three tri-meets planned in addition to the Ten Team County meet.

— Miss Bogacki

Tennis Team



This year Resurrection offered two types of tennis: Varsity and Recreational tennis. The Varsity team sent in two doubles teams and two singles teams to the League Tournament at Ursuline in which Angela Benvenuti and Kathy Lavelle took second place in the doubles. Every Thursday and Friday at the Rye Hilton Courts, recreational tennis is led by Mrs. Rannala.

— Miss Bogacki

Cheerleading

The Cheerleading Team of Resurrection cheers for the Basketball Team in the hope that they can assure them of school spirit at both home and away games. The girls do not cheer only for the team, they are also participants in several cheerleading tournaments. Last year, the girls entered three contests and returned home with three trophies.

The cheerleaders work long hours trying to perfect their cheers and we appreciate the pride that they have in their school and the teams that represent it.

Seniors

After four years, one thing that each Senior has learned is that she has a friend. Whether that friend is one she can laugh with, cry with, or study with, she can also share memories with her. It is with you, my friend, that the Class of 1977 wants to share the memories of our metamorphosis.

Do you remember:

— "Fun Days" in Freshman year Religion Class.
— The entire Physical Science class being called to the office for cutting (April 1st.).
— The Soph Hop we never had.
— The postponed Christmas Prom.
— The Bicentennial Day skit which received "mixed reviews".
— The day the Lab blew up.
— Ring Day at the Elk's Club and Giovanni's.
— The Front Hall or unofficially, the "Junior Lounge".
— The Senior Lounge filled with gossip, soap opera stories, and crocodiles!
— The successful Senior Bridge.
— Our last Christmas with tearful Christmas Carols.
— Sr. Virginia and her famous "MORE MILK, PLEASE".
— Being half-dressed in the gym locker room only to hear the fire bell ring.
— Thanks for the memories, my friend. I love you!

The seasons flow one into the other,
The skies change from blue to grey,
The sea, the wind, the rain,
All continuously work to change
The appearance of the earth.
Just as the outward surface of the earth
Differs with every touch,
So I differ with all that touches me.
I see the metamorphosis around me,
Inevitable with the passage of time.
I see the changes within me:
The sunny moods, the dark ones,
The changes in how I look and in what I see;
I have gone through many changes, many stages.
For every action, every word, every thought
Has somehow changed me.
They have altered my feelings, my tastes,
My very personality.
For I am the result of all these differences
And the reflection of all that has touched me.
For my life, my growth,
My very being
Is but a series of changes.

Dear Jake,

Well, next yr. juniors huh?-along with the big seniors!! - Next yr, we will probably be in alot of classes together again!!. I can't think of much to say, - "look at my finger, and board" we might have that again next year!!. Have a really nice summer, I hope you get your car - have a nice B-Day - Really glad I get to know you - see you next year, Take Care, Lisa

Dear Jake,

Well this year is over. We had alot of good times together especially in francais class. We really became close this year and we got to stay that way. Don't forget our talks!!

Well here we are in health as we take our test. I notice you seem to looking down alot at your folder. Pretty cute trick!!

Jake I really had alot of fun this year I hope I'm in your homeroom next year. thanks for making me laugh when I wasn't in the mood.

Have a Happy Birthday!! 16

Love Always

Jean

P.S. Will be waiting to go to Jone's beach in the summer with your car.

Dear Jake,

Well the year is finally over, I can't believe we are going to be juniors, it seems so strange. I'm really glad we became better friends this year. We both had a lot of things in common (Eugene & Joe) But we really can't talk about them that much anymore, ~~because~~ until next year. and who knows we might have them back by then, but then again we don't care, do we? Well I hope I see you during the summer. We'll all have to meet somewhere or night, Will have a really great Birthday, and good summer. Take care

Tammy

Jake,

I can't believe this year is finally over! (ha ha good opening) I really don't know what to write in yearbooks but I'll attempt it. I know one thing I can't do on this one page or even on 2 pages, that is 7 list all the good times I have had with you. Alot of the times when I felt shitty you made me fel even worse. by telling me how everything was gonna work out O.k. but then you would turn around and worry even waise then me. Most of the time though when we all felt like shit on the train or something all you had to do was pull one of your acts and you would have us all on the floor laughin.

ALMA MATER

Resurrection, Alma Mater,
"Victory" is our cry;
Green our hope and gold our triumph
Here within you lie!

Resurrection, Alma Mater,
We shall never stray
From the golden path you've shown us,
Modeled on God's Way!

Resurrection, Alma Mater,
'Neath your guiding hand,
Teaching truth, inspiring virtue;
We, your daughters stand!

Ever softly, ever sweetly,
Voices ringing true,
Rise in lilting verse together;
Sing your praises due!

at the beging of this year when I did'nt know what to do about alot of things you kept talking me into going out. At the time I really was'nt to happy to but now that is only one of the many things I have to thank you for.

You have to D've been through alot with you Eugene and Andrew for example: Some of the time or should I say most of the time during school I'm pretty sure you were ready to kill me + I know it there was many times I wanted to kill you (are you shaking?) We had good times even though we had many things going against us like school for instance. and certain people at certain meetings when you finally decided to get involved. (figure it out) We got kinda close this year. Maybe I'll see you over the Summer and I'll be waiting for your the first day of school love Dorothy
